MEXICO BECOMING MORE QUIET

General Inclination to Recognize New Regime Being Manifested

MEXICO CITY, March 4.—Major Cardenas, who was in charge of the escort of Francisco Madero and Jose Pino Suarez on the day they were killed, was today promoted from the rural guard to the same rank in the regular army.

A general inclination to recognize General Huerta's administration is being manifested by the rebels in all parts of the republic.

Many of the rebels, however, display sensitiveness in regard to the amnesty bill to be discussed by the chamber of deputies tomorrow, which, they say, wrongly implies their defeat.

Rumors of plots and conspiracies are frequent in the capital; everybody continues to suspect his neighbor. Secret service men keep constant watch over the most prominent suspects.

A force of rebels has occupied Yreplilla, Morelos. The war department today announced its intention of dispatching a punitive expedition into the southern rebel zone.

New significance has been added to the northern insurrection under Governor Carranza of Coahuila by the discovery of some adherents of Carranza far to the west in Zacatecas, where they have burned railroad bridges.

Carranza is preparing to evacuate Saltillo and a government force is expected to replace him late today.

SECOND SKIRMISH AT DOUGLAS

Many Shots Are Exchanged Across the Border.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 4.—A second skirmish occurred at 10 o'clock this morning between the Ninth cavalry troops and Mexican federal soldiers from Agua Prieta, across the international border one and a half miles southeast of Douglas, Mexico to the number of fifty fired on the border patrol at a distance of 200 yards.

In answer to a hurry call Groups B and F and a machine gun platoon of the Ninth cavalry were rushed to the place where the Mexicans had fired on the patrol.

The Mexican soldiers returned the fire with spirit, but soon retreated to a line of trenches dug during the Madero revolution. When they reached the trenches the firing ceased. Whether any Mexicans were killed or wounded is not known. None of the Americans was hit.

Colonel Gullfoyle took personal command of the troops at the scene of today's fighting, which is a repetition of the battle of Sunday, when Mexican federal and United States troops fought for a half hour. American soldiers are drawn up this afternoon in a skirmish line awaiting further developments.

HUGE STORAGE EGG PROFITS

merchandise, who is on the blacklist, another bill of goods while he owes you money?" Marsh was asked.

"I would be fined $5, and if I did not pay it I would be placed on this list."

"Is there ever a meeting of this association to fix prices?"

"No, absolutely not."

"Who fixes the price of butter in Omaha?"

"I don't know."

Creameries Fix Prices.

"Isn't it a fact that the creameries fix the price at which you shall sell to the retailer?"

"I don't know; I guess so."

"Isn't it a fact that Omaha is the greatest butter market in the world, since the Elgin market was discontinued?"

"Yes."

"Is not the Omaha market used all over the world?"

"No, but it is used by the largest creamery company in the world."

at 13 cents, so you can readily see what the egg business is like this winter."

He was asked who fixed the price of butter, but said he did not know.

Do you ever sell butter to Hayden Bros.?" he was asked.

"Yes."

Small Dealer Pays More.

"Do you charge them the same price for it that you do the small dealer?"

"No, because they buy in large quantities and then it is only one delivery; whereas when I sell to the small dealer I have to make many deliveries and go to more work than when I sell to Hayden Bros."

Mr. Perry was asked if he considered first-class country butter as good as creamery butter, and said he believed it was better.

John F. Jerpe of the Jerpe Commission company was quizzed extensively, but could lend no more light than did the other witnesses.

Makes Hundred Per Cent Profit.

Fred H. Hanson, secretary of the Retail Grocers' association, who was in the grocery business in 1909 and 1910, told of buying eggs from a commission man in April at 19 cents to be delivered when wanted. Mr. Hanson said when the wholesale price of eggs was 23 cents, he sold some of his at 25 cents and realized a profit of 6 cents on the dozen.

He said in February, 1909, he sold the eggs for which he paid 19 cents to consumers at 40 cents, realizing a profit of 21 cents a dozen. He sold one case of eggs containing 30 dozen to a commission man at 38 cents a dozen, realizing a profit of 19 per cent.

WILSON CABINET COMPLETE

Lindley M. Garrison of New Jersey Secretary of War.

LANE MINISTER OF INTERIOR

Portland of Agriculture to Be Held Under New Administration by David F. Houston of Washington University.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Although President-elect Wilson will not send the names of his cabinet to the senate until tomorrow, definite information as to its personnel came from members of his official family when he arrived today.

Washington now accepts the following as constituting the final selections of the president-elect:

Secretary of state, William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska.

Secretary of treasury, William G. McAdoo of New York.

Secretary of war, Lindley M. Garrison of New Jersey.

Attorney general, James McReynolds of Tennessee.

Postmaster general, Representative Albert Burleson of Texas.

Secretary of the navy, Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.

Secretary of the interior, Franklin K. Lane of California.

Secretary of agriculture, David F. Houston of Missouri.

Secretary of commerce, Representative William C. Redfield of New York.

Secretary of labor, Representative William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania.

Many of these names have been known for several days, and chief interest centered in the revelation of those who would receive the portfolios of war, agriculture and interior.

The selection of Vice Chancellor Garrison of New York to be secretary of war is in line with the idea the president-elect has always had—that the secretary of war should be a man of unusual administrative ability. Vice Chancellor Garrison is a close friend of Mr. Wilson.

TAFT FAMILY TAKES TRAIN

Former President Becomes Private Citizen of United States.

ARRIVE IN AUGUSTA TODAY

Miss Helen Taft Weeps Gently as Farewells Are Said at Station and Eyes of Others Are Not Dry.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—William H. Taft, public servant since he was 21, said his farewell to public life today and became a citizen of the republic that he served over the seas and throughout the world for so many years. He has almost forgotten when he enlisted. His good-bye was a smile, a handshake for the members of his cabinet, courteously bow to the women friends who waved the inauguration discomforts to bid him and Mrs. Taft "goodspeed" in the union station; a wave of the hand and another smile for the people who stood in the throng and watched his train pull slowly out for the south.

The last that Washington saw of the twenty-sixth president was the dim outline of a big, smiling figure in a frock coat, with hair a little away, standing on the rear platform of a private car as it was swallowed in the curling smoke of the tunnel that leads under the city to Dixie. His last glimpse of the city where four years ago he became chief executive and today a private citizen by the people's will, was from the platform of his car across the broad Potomac to where the Washington monument lifted its gray, pointed peak to the gray sky.

Will Take Vacation in Georgia. Tomorrow he expects to be in Georgia to rest and play as the guest of the city of Augusta for three weeks. On March 27 he plans to go north again to New Haven to settle down under the elms of Yale to the peace and quiet of life as professor of law. He left with no bitterness in his heart, he told friends, but only with thankfulness that he had been given the opportunity to serve.

Absorbed as it was in the inauguration pageant, Washington did not forget the man, the retiring president. Although he was hurried in one of the White House cars from the back of the White House down through the mall and over back streets, hundreds of those on the sidewalks who recognized him cheered lustily. He was forced to break through the line of march in front of the capitol to get to the Union station and the massed thousands forgot the parade for a moment to pay their last tribute of applause.

At the station most of the members of the Taft cabinet and their wives and several close friends of Mrs. Taft were waiting. Miss Helen wept gently as the farewells were said and the eyes of some of the others were far from dry. With all the ceremony that has attended his departure on other occasions, the wide passageway across the broad concourse, the scores of station police, the secret service men and his former aide, Major Thomas L. Rhoads, with his spurs clicking on the stone, Mr. Taft marched through a cheering throng to his train. He stood for a few minutes by the side of his car, shook hands once more with his friends and then stepped aboard.

Retires to Pedestrian Life.

"I am now retiring to a pedestrian life," he said.

This has been a busy day for Mr. Taft. Although he was up until 3 o'clock this morning, he slept only four hours and was at his study desk again to wind up the business of his administration. He worked with only a few minutes for breakfast until Mr. Wilson started from his hotel to the White House. He spent an hour in the president's room in the senate side of the capitol signing bills, vetoing others and between times talking with Mr. Wilson and senators and representatives who paid their last call. At the White House luncheon the president sat and chatted for ten minutes with Mrs. Wilson. He left by the south door and his last view of the mansion came as his automobile shot down through the Mall.

Dr. Friedmann May Not Be Allowed to Practice in Gotham

NEW YORK, March 4.—Whether Dr. F. F. Friedmann will be allowed to make a demonstration of his tuberculosis treatment in this city rests with the Board of Health, he announced today. The German physician has been forbidden to practice here by the board of censors of the New York Medical society without a special license, and this he indicated he has applied for.

"This matter is in the hands of the Board of Health," he said. "The health commissioner has promised to make the decision today if possible. He will also tell me in which hospital the first demonstration of the treatment of the patients may be made."

An invitation to visit Milwaukee and test his tuberculosis remedy in hospital clinics there was extended to Dr. Friedmann today by Dr. E. W. Kellogg, city physician of Milwaukee. The German physician took the matter under advisement.

Dr. Friedmann's rooms were stacked today with an accumulation of letters and telegrams from all parts of the country from persons seeking his treatment.

PEARL DENTON, Geneva, Ia.

FOURTEEN NOBLE GUARDS APPOINTED BY POPE PIUS

ROME, March 3.—Pope Pius today appointed fourteen new noble guards. The appointments were made in accordance with the recently established rule whereby it is not necessary that the new members shall belong to a former pontifical state. The new guards, however, are all Italians and none has yet been chosen from the foreign candidates.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION IMPORTANT TO EVERYONE

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lumbago, back, inability to hold urine, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, salivary complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention the Omaha Daily Bee.—Advertisement.
